Delivering multiple roles effortlessly every single day; Women are undoubtedly the backbone of society. However, they have also been an ignored fraction of the society in many parts of the country. This session helped the girls to empower themselves.

The first day of the session focused on self -awareness, communication and relationships which gave a clear perception of personality including strengths, weaknesses, thoughts, beliefs, motivation and emotions. The session also emphasized on having a high self -esteem which is crucial and an important factor for having a positive attitude in our life. The first day of the session ended with a few inputs on self- defense as to how women in today's generation should be proactive and prepared for all consequences and situations.

On the second day of the session, importance was given to the kind of choices and decisions made by a woman, as both the factors go hand in hand. In addition to that some of the challenges faced by a woman were also discussed. Moreover, this day also had parent – child interaction where parents of all students were called and were made part of the session. It helped the parents as well as the students to understand themselves thereby establishing a healthy relation between them. Overall, the session was unique and interesting. Towards the end the girls felt empowered.
